

My mom came from El Salvador when she was young. The biggest change for her was adjusting to the environment. The money change was also difficult. One of the greatest changes or difficulties she faced was getting a job to support my brother in El Salvador.

Kenia, California